Holy Communion – Setting 2

8:00 a.m. and 10:30 a.m.

Prelude

Welcome

Brief Order for Confession and Forgiveness

Stand

The sign of the cross may be made by all in remembrance of their Baptism.

P In the name of the Father, and of the ☩ Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

C Amen.

P Almighty God, to whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you and worthily magnify your holy name, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

C Amen.

P If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us. But if we confess our sins, God who is faithful and just will forgive our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

Kneel/Stand

Silence for reflection and self-examination.

P Most merciful God,

C we confess that we are in bondage to sin and cannot free ourselves. We have sinned against you in thought, word and deed, by what we have done and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. For the sake of your Son, Jesus Christ, have mercy on us. Forgive us, renew us, and lead us, so that we may delight in your will and walk in your ways, to the glory of your holy name. Amen.

The minister stands and addresses the congregation.

P In the mercy of almighty God, Jesus Christ was given to die for you, and for his sake God forgives you all your sins. To those who believe in Jesus Christ he gives the power to become the children of God and bestows on them the Holy Spirit.

C Amen.

Prayer of the Day

P The Lord be with you.

G And al-so with you.

P Let us pray.

O Lord, pour out upon us the Spirit to say and do what is pleasing in your sight, that we, who cannot even exist without you, may have strength to live according to your will, through Jesus Christ, your Son our Lord. He lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

G Amen.

First Reading

2 Kings 4:42-44

A A reading from Second Kings.

Today's reading is part of a larger section (2 Kings 4:1—8:6) that presents the miracles of Elisha. Here the prophet asks that food be given to a hungry crowd. He trusts God who says there shall be enough and even more.

A man came from Baal-shalishah, bringing food from the first fruits to the man of God; twenty loaves of barley and fresh ears of grain in his sack. Elisha said, "Give it to the people and let them eat." But his servant said, "How can I set this before a hundred people?" so he repeated, "Give it to the people and let them eat, for thus says the LORD. They shall eat and have some left." He set it before them, they ate, and had some left, according to the word of the LORD.

L The word of the Lord.

G Thanks be to God.

All your works praise you, O LORD,
and your faithful servants bless you.

They make known the glory of your kingdom and speak of your power;

that the peoples may know of your power
and the glorious splendor of your kingdom.

Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom;
your dominion endures throughout all ages.

The LORD is faithful in all his words and merciful in all his deeds.

The LORD upholds all those who fall;
he lifts up those who are bowed down.

The eyes of all wait upon you, O LORD,
and you give them their food in due season.

You open wide your hand and satisfy the needs of every living creature.

The LORD is righteous in all his ways and loving in all his works.

The LORD is near to those who call upon him,
to all who call upon him faithfully.

Second Reading

Ephesians 3:14-21

A The Second Lesson is from Ephesians.

Paul prays for the Christians in Ephesus, asking that God will grant them inner strength and spiritual power as they continue to grow in their understanding of the love of Christ.

For this reason I bow my knees before the Father, from whom every family in heaven and on earth takes its name. I pray that, according to the riches of his glory, he may grant that you may be strengthened in your inner being with power through his Spirit, and that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith, as you are being rooted and grounded in love. I pray that you may have the power to comprehend, with all the saints, what is the breadth and length and height and depth, and to know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge, so that you may be filled with all the fullness of God. Now to him who by the power at work within us is able to accomplish abundantly far more than all we can ask or imagine, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus to all generations, forever and ever. Amen.

L The word of the Lord.

G Thanks be to God.

Ⓟ The Holy Gospel according to St. John, the Sixth chapter.

Gospel

John 6:1—21

In John's gospel, the miracles of Jesus are called "signs," because they reveal the true character of God. As such, they remain within the mystery of God and cannot be brought under human control.

After this Jesus went to the other side of the Sea of Galilee, also called the sea of Tiberias. A large crowd kept following him, because they saw the signs that he was doing for the sick. Jesus went up the mountain and sat down there with his disciples. Now the Passover, the festival of the Jews, was near. When he looked up and saw a large crowd coming toward him, Jesus said to Philip, "Where are we to buy bread for these people to eat?" He said this to test him, for he himself knew what he was going to do. Philip answered him, "Six months' wages would not buy enough bread for each of them to get a little." One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, said to him, "There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish. But what are they among so many people?" Jesus said, "Make the people sit down." Now there was a great deal of grass in the place; so they sat down, about five thousand in all. Then Jesus took the loaves and when he had given thanks, he distributed them to those who were seated; so also the fish, as much as they wanted. When they were satisfied, he told his disciples, "Gather up the fragments left over, so that nothing may be lost." So they gathered them up, and from the fragments left over, left by those who had eaten, they filled twelve baskets. When the people saw the sign that he had done, they began to say, "This is indeed the prophet who is to come into the world." When Jesus realized that they were about to come and take him by force to make him king, he withdrew again to the mountain by himself. When evening came, his disciples went down to the sea, got into a boat and started across the sea to Capernaum. It was now dark, and Jesus had not yet come to them. The sea became rough because a strong wind was blowing. When they had rowed about three or four miles, they saw Jesus walking on the sea and coming near the boat, and they were terrified. But he said to them, "It is I; do not be afraid." Then they wanted to take him into the boat, and immediately the boat reached the land toward which they were going.

Praise to you, O Christ.

Hymn of the Day Lord I Lift Your Name on High RW 90 (10:30 only)

Lord, I lift your name on high, Lord, I love to sing your prais - es. I'm so glad you're in my life, I'm so glad you came to save us. You came from heav - en to earth to show the way, from the earth to the cross, my debt to pay; from the cross to the grave,
 from the grave to the sky; Lord, I lift your name on high.

Text and Music: Rick Founds

Apostle's Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord. He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended into hell. On the third day he rose again. He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

The Prayers

A With the whole people of God in Christ Jesus, let us pray for the church, those in need, and all of God's creation.

A brief silence.

A Holy Shepherd, lead your church this day into thanksgiving for your gifts of green fields and for the banquet of peace you set for us. Gracious God,

C hear our prayer.

A Merciful God, help all people to experience your peace: those who suffer from war and disease, those whose ambition causes pain to others, those who battle earthquakes and floods, and those who live in fear. Gracious God,

C hear our prayer.

A God our dwelling place, bless us so we can witness and serve the needs of your people everywhere: the homeless, those without work and food, and those who are dying. Give us words and deeds that extend your gracious feast to everyone. Gracious God,

C hear our prayer.

A God of rest and strength, we ask your comfort for families who grieve the death of loved ones and for all who look for healing in their lives (especially). Help them and us to draw comfort from your promise to be with us now and for all eternity. Gracious God,

C hear our prayer.

Here other intercessions may be offered.

A We give thanks, O God, for the saints of your church (especially Birgitta of Sweden, whom we commemorate today). Use us to proclaim your good news to all who are in need in our own day. Gracious God,

C hear our prayer.

After the gifts have been presented an offertory prayer is said.

Offertory Prayer

- A Let us pray. Open our eyes, O God,
C to your generous care of everything that lives so that we do not try to struggle by and for ourselves. Accept these offerings as our pledge that we will work and wait with you until you have subdued all things unto your Son. Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

- P It is indeed right and salutary...we praise your name and join in their unending hymn:

First verse in Spanish (by Youth Choir)

Abre mis ojos oh Cristo, abre mis ojos te pido

Yo quiero verte, Yo quiero verte

Abre mis ojos oh Cristo, abre mis ojos te pido

Yo quiero verte, Yo quiero verte

Y verte alto y exaltado, brillando en la luz de tu gloria

Derrama tu poder y amor mientras cantamos, "Santo, santo,"

"Santo, santo, santo," (repeat 3 times)

Yo quiero verte.

Second verse in English everyone together

Open the eyes of my heart Lord, open the eyes of my heart,
I want to see you, I want to see you.

Open the eyes of my heart, Lord. Open the eyes of my heart,
I want to see you, I want to see you.

To see you high and lifted up, shining in the light of your glory,

Pour out your power and love as we cry, "Holy, holy holy."
"Holy, holy, holy." (repeat 3 times)

We want to see you.

☐ Blessed are you, Lord of heaven and earth.

In mercy for our fallen world you gave your only Son, that all those who believe in him should not perish but have eternal life.

We give thanks to you for the salvation you have prepared for us through Jesus Christ.

Send now your Holy Spirit into our hearts, that we may receive our Lord with a living faith as he comes to us in his holy supper.

☑ Amen. Come Lord Jesus.

☐ In the night in which he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks; broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying: Take and eat; this is my body, given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup and gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying: This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me.

Lord's Prayer

☐ Lord, remember us in your kingdom and teach us to pray:

☑ Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

We Sit.

☑ Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world; have mer-cy on us. Lamb of God, you take a-way the sin of the world; have mer-cy on us. Lamb of God, you take a-way the sin of the world;

 grant us peace, grant us peace.

Here I Am, Lord

WOV 752(10:30 only)

All baptized believers in Christ are welcome at Christ's Table. You may eat the wafer and drink from the first, common cup, or, hold the wafer and dip it into the second cup. The communion follows. As the ministers give the bread and cup to each communicant, they say: The body of Christ, given for you. The blood of Christ, shed for you.

The communicant may say: Amen.

Stand. After all have returned to their places, the minister may say these or similar words.

- ☐ The body and blood of our Lord Jesus Christ strengthen you and keep you in his grace.
- ☑ Amen.

Canticle

☑ Thank the Lord and sing his praise; tell ev-'ry-one what he has done. Let ev-'ry-one who seeks the Lord rejoice and proud-ly bear his name. He re-calls his prom-is-es and leads his peo - ple forth in joy with shouts of thanks -

Post-Communion Prayer

A Let us pray.

We look to you, O Lord, because you were able to refuse the evil and choose the good. Continue this communion with us throughout the week that through your victory we may dare to serve you without fear. You are the Lord forevermore.

C Amen.

The Benediction

F Almighty God, Father, † Son, and Holy Spirit, bless you now and for-ever.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Welcome! In the name of Jesus Christ, welcome to this gathering of Christ's Church. May those who sorrow find comfort; the weary, rest; the troubled, peace; the stranger, friends; the happy, joy; and all the sense of God's gracious presence.

Our Vision: The Good Shepherd Lutheran Church is a congregation of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA), Southeastern Synod, Holston-Heritage Conference.

By the grace of God, the Good Shepherd, we are called to grow in faithful stewardship of God's gifts through teaching the Gospel, loving one another, and serving Christ joyfully within the Lakeway community and the world.

Attendance Registers: Please sign your name in the red attendance register during the offering and pass it down the pew. Thank you.

Altar Flowers are given today to the glory of God by Pam and Mike Kusterman in honor of Scott's birthday.

Congratulations! David and Debbie Sweany present a white rose on the altar today to the glory of God and in honor of the birth of grandson, Brennan David, born to Sara and Matt Whitehead on July 25, 2006.
